

Naschmarkt - Art, Culture and Savoir Vivre on and around Vienna's Central Market

What Covent Garden used to be for London and Les Halles for Paris, Naschmarkt still is for Vienna. It not only offers a wide range of traditional local and international produce but also reflects the multi-ethnic mosaic of Vienna. Often threatened by closure, it has experienced an unprecedented renaissance with delis, pubs and hip bars in recent years. Savour the market's unique atmosphere and learn about its fascinating history. Also explore with us the trendy neighbourhoods in the market's vicinity, model examples of urban revival.

Meeting Point:

1., Friedrichstrasse 12, in front of the Secession

