

Trailing American Associations with Vienna–From New York to San Francisco

What does Vienna's 2nd district have to do with Brooklyn? Johann Strauss jun. with Boston, Massachusetts? Adolf Loos with Chicago? The Prater Amusement Park with the Wild West? Vienna's tram system with the Bronx? The Sacher Hotel with West Side Story? Empress Zita's funeral with Mark Twain? The Karlsplatz with Hollywood? American connections with Vienna abound. This rather unconventional tour wants to uncover them, for anglophiles, ex-pats and visitors alike. Learn about Vienna under post-war Allied occupation, US-celebrity visitors and how the American musical and Jazzmusic made their way to Vienna. See locations of Hollywood movies and listen to stories you will not necessarily find in any guide book of Vienna.
