

Vienna's Architectural Heritage - From Romanesque to Post-Modern

Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque, Jugendstil, Vienna has it all! There are few cities that boast such a fascinating potpourri of different styles so close to each other. Delight in the city's amazing architectural heritage on this off-the-beaten-track walk through the city's historic centre. It gives an overview of the evolution of Austrian and Viennese art and architecture from medieval times to the present day within the context of European trends and fashions. It is also an introduction to the essential characteristics of the art of a particular era set against the political and social background of the time.

Meeting Point:

1., Stephansplatz, right of the main entrance to the cathedral

Attention:

